Adjoining County News

Miss Annie Witherspoon is in Rock Hill undergoing treatment at the Fennell Infirmary. Mrs. Jennie Steele has returned to her home in the upper Camp Creek section and is greatly improved following an operation at the Fennell Infirmary in Rock Hill. Mrs. Higgins, near Blackstock, spent a few days recently with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. McIlwaine, of the South Lancaster section. Miss Ruby Baskins and Dennis Harper, both young people of the Elgin section, were married at Heath Springs Saturday afternoon, Rev. Ewell officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Baskins and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Harper. The eleven year old child purchased by County Agent Howell in Spartanburg county last week arrived yesterday and will be distributed to day among many child boys. The Lancaster County Jail association held a meeting in the office of the county agent today to arrange for a big picnic during July, the exact date not having been decided on. When The News went to press, but will probably be on or about July 25. Fire during Sunday night, it is reported, destroyed one of the large saw mills operated by Robinson & Aftener in the Liberty Hill section. These gentlemen are from the vicinity of Greensboro, N. C., and have been in the Liberty Hill section for two years or more. No particulars could be obtained as to how the fire started and the loss involved. Miss Mary Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Knight, of this city, underwent a few days ago at the Fennell Infirmary in Rock Hill an operation for removal of her tonsils and also for adenoids, both of which were successful and the young lady has returned home greatly improved. W. C. Clifton, well known mechanic who has been working with the force engaged in the construction of Dr. T. E. Doster's new home, corner Elberta and Catawba streets, had the misfortune Saturday morning to fall from a scaffold and break the right leg just above the knee. Mr. Clifton was immediately attended by a local physician and later removed to his home in the Dixie section, about eight miles east of the city, the trip being made in a Ford touring car. With a cast on the right leg, Clifton lay. The break is considered an unusually bad one, it is said, and it will be some time before Mr. Clifton will be able to walk again. Lancaster News.

John Ross, a Gastonia negro, arrested before the Magistrate for Bethel for disturbing a religious meeting at Jerusalem colored church, was sentenced to go to the main gaol for a term of five days. $350. Jack Davis and Harry Gates, two convicts in the penitentiary, were shot yesterday by Guard H. H. Gillespie while trying to escape through the back of the penitentiary. Gillespie saw the men coming up through a trap door in the guard tower, knocking and driving them back. Davis was hit by the shot. Davis was severely wounded in the leg. Davis went out from Rock Hill for robbing the home of Dr. T. T. White. The two were taken to the main gaol. The worst men in the penitentiary. "Supervisor Brown" is out with a force of convicts trying to patch up some of the many bridges about which he is getting complaints. He has been at this work for some time and yesterday was engaged by the Lowry bridge over Fishing Creek. "It looks like we can't get a bridge man when we need him," he said yesterday, "and I am trying to do it myself." The cotton crop outlook throughout the county is generally fine. The cotton acreage is hardly as large as it was last year, and the plant is looking as well as it ought to look. Beyond the boll weevil threat, the outlook is good enough. The corn prospect is not especially flattering, and the chances for an average to the best are hardly to be gained. The cotton crop is growing, slimmer and slimmer. "People who have been noticing such things over a period of years are struck with the increasing care and attention that the cottoners are receiving. This is especially noticeable in the country. While it is hardly to be said that the cottoneries have ever been wholly neglected, still it is a fact that they are receiving more attention now than they were a few years back. The neglected graves are growing less common to the great credit of living relatives, descendants and friends of the people whose bones they hold." Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Harrison and four children, arrived in Yorkville yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock from Gen's Quarry. They had been driven through a distance of about 410 miles, since Sunday morning at about 4 o'clock. They expect to remain in Yorkville with relatives and friends for a week or such a matter. Mr. Harrison said that he found the roads very good; but is willing to hand it to Georgia and South Carolina, especially South Carolina, for having it on Alabama in this regard. "Getting his buggy smashed by the impact of a truck traveling at a moderate speed, the experience of Glenn Barnett, negro, on East Liberty street Sunday night as he brought back a cask who had spent the day at his home in the country. A car hit him just as he was turning into a yard on the north side of the street, smashing a wheel and throwing the woman out. The car was driven by Mr. Adams of Rock Hill, who had swerved to the right in order to pass a car in front. Then a half minute later, while Barnett was holding his horse, came another car driven by William Carroll, smashing two more wheels and the buggy dropped. Though traveling at a moderate speed, the brakes, the impact, the slippery streets and an exploded tire left Carroll's car facing the opposite direction from which it was going; he was within a few feet of the wreck. Although Barnett, the woman and the horse were more or less bruised none of them appeared to be seriously hurt. The buggy was a wreck. That 120 horse power gas engine that the town has at the water plant to take care of the situation at times when the electricity might be out of commission is a dandy. It is of equal efficiency with the electric motor—Yorkville Enquirer.

Two Garrets Will Face Trial

True Bills Filed Against Both. Brothers Charged With Killing Rev. E. S. Pierce, Pastor of Five Churches.

Cumberland Court House, Va., June 28.—True bills of indictment charging the murder of Rev. E. S. Pierce, pastor of five Baptist churches in the Cumberland county, official, with first degree murder for the slaying of the Rev. E. S. Pierce, pastor of five Baptist churches in the Cumberland county, official, who was shot to death at his home here on the morning of June 28, were reported to Judge B. D. White by a grand jury in circuit court late today.

The grand jury in session less than an hour and examined only five cases. One of the special jurors, William M. Smith, commonwealth's attorney for Cumberland county, who was an eyewitness to the killing and who was called today by special request to the grand jury in circuit court late today.

Seven men composed the jury. When court convened shortly before noon, Judge White presiding in the court, Judge George L. Handley, who is ill in a Richmond hospital, directed the sheriff to summon a special panel of nine men to constitute the grand jury. One of the men reported when court reconvened this afternoon. The seventh juror, V. E. Saunders, was summoned by Judge Handley. He was in the court room. Mr. Saunders was foreman of the jury, which was composed of W. W. Jackson, David Stuart, W. T. Adams, John Martin, J. A. Moon, Jr., and W. D. Guthrie.

The atmosphere of the little court house was charged with an air of expectancy. The grand jury, Judge White ascended the bench and formally opened the court session. The court room was filled with spectators and the thoroughfare in the vicinity of the county building were lined with automobiles and other vehicles. A squad of police officers from Richmond and a score of special deputy sheriffs were on hand to preserve order but their services were not needed. The crowd was orderly and no disturbance or demonstration marked the two brief sessions.

The arrival during the afternoon of Col. F. J. Deane, private secretary to Gov. E. Lee Trinkle, created some surprise. Colonel Deane visited to discuss the purpose of his visit but the governor stated in Richmond that the major of the acting as his personal representative to "obtain first hand information as to the situation" and "to keep the commonwealth advised of conditions in Cumberland county."

Following a brief conference with counsel, Judge White set the trial of the case for July 10 at 10 o'clock. E. Hyatt of Richmond, special counsel employed to assist in the prosecution of the case, served notice that the state would seek a change of venue when the Garrets are called to trial. A majority of the prosecution to forfeit the Grand of R. O. Garrett was denied when defense counsel presented an affidavit from hospital authorities stating that the defendant was unable to appear in court.

SEIZURE OF LIQUOR IS STRICTLY LEGAL

English Anti-Prohibitionists Have No Legal Ground For Protest.

Washington, June 28.—The statement by Premier Baldwin to the British house of commons that the breaking of British customs seal on the British liners arriving at New York with stores of liquor specially sealed afforded no ground for protest to the United States government conforms to the view by American officials from the outset. It has been emphasized in Washington that the seals had no value so far as American territorial waters were concerned and that their breaking by customs officers would not result in any international incident.

In whatever steps the British government might see fit to take with respect to the action of the New York customs officials, it has been pointed out here that the question involved would be the seizure of British seals and there has been no indication of any intention on the part of the British or as yet on the part of any other power to protest against the seizure.

So far as Great Britain is concerned there is no doubt that American officials feel that the precedent established by the Lord Chief Justice of England this month in penalizing the German steamer Cleopatra for bringing spirits into New Castle while enroute to Antwerp, from Finland would be difficult to get around should the foreign officials take up the question of the New York seizure.

The British government, when Justice held that it was immaterial where the seized spirits were intended to be landed; that they had been imported into British jurisdiction and in a way contrary to British law when the ship entered British territorial waters regardless of whether the liquor was for the ship's master or the passengers in England or at Antwerp.

In view of all the circumstances it is evident that officials in Washington expect the New York seizure to be regarded as a purely domestic affair as to British ships are concerned, to go to court decision in a routine way and without participation by the British government in any diplomatic way in the proceedings.

SUNDAY SWIMMING PREACHERS CONDEMNED BY

Greenville Ministerial Union Starts Campaign Against Swimming Pools.

Greenville, June 28.—The Greenville Ministerial Union, composed of pastors of practically all churches of the city, has begun a war to the death on swimming pools and kindred amusements on Sunday afternoon in this section. Proprietors, however, have already struck back and it remains to be seen whether or not pools, shooting galleries, riding and other amusements will be closed.

The ministerial union at a called meeting today passed resolutions denouncing alleged desecration of the Sabbath about Greenville and especially frowned on the swimming resorts, several of which are in close proximity of the city. A petition to close the pools and other places of amusement was signed by 13 ministers and forwarded to owners and proprietors of the resorts.

The scolded drive against the resorts began Sunday when Dr. Geo. W. Quirk, pastor of the First Baptist church, and the Rev. W. A. McCauley, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, spoke on the subject of "Sunday Amusements." The pastors declared that desecration of the Sabbath is going forward here at an alarming pace and called on their congregations, two of the largest in the city, to take notice of the state of affairs.

Sunday, July 2, was the day set aside by the ministers of the city for a discussion of the Sunday amusement problem.

Immediately following the meeting of the union today, owners of several large swimming pools and amusement places in and near the city stated that they would not close their places unless forced to do so, and took issue with the clergy as to the alleged baneful effects of their operation.

The action of the ministers created a flurry of discussion here and from gossip on the streets, citizens, church members and non-church members are sharply divided on the issue.

TOBACCO OUTLOOK AT TIMMONSVILLE

Prospects Good for an Unusually Large Crop There.

Timmonsville, June 28.—Prospects are that an unusually large crop of tobacco will be made in this section this season and with three large independent warehouses and two cooperative ones Timmonsville is assuredly in position to take care of the bumper yield. The cooperative houses, the Palmetto and Liberty, will be under absolute management, as will also the independent houses.

Moore Brothers, formerly of St. Paul, have leased for five years the Farmers' Warehouse and are already ready for getting ready for the big opening in August. The Moore Brothers are experienced warehousemen and last season at Lamar J. W. Moore had the record of giving the highest average prices for tobacco in the state. The Banner will be run by J. A. Warren, Ashby & Cheek, of Durham, N. C. They too, are warily watching the market. W. P. Brox and Thomas Brox, of Winston-Salem will have charge of the third independent house, which, according to G. W. Gomer, contractor, will be completed within two weeks.

Indications now are that Timmonsville will again be one of the leading markets of the state as all of the houses have determined to stand by the farmers and to give them the largest prices possible for the tobacco brought here.

Eighty per cent of the Farmers of Oregon have telephoned.

YOUTH IS VICTIM OF GRANDSTAND ACCIDENT

William Harrell Dies at Rutherford Hospital; Harold Long Has Broken Shoulder.

Forest City, June 27.—William Harrell, the 10 year old son of Mrs. Raney Harrell, died this morning at the Rutherford hospital.

He was one of the victims of the accident which occurred here last Wednesday when the top of the baseball grandstand blew off. It was thought at first he would recover, but his skull was found to be fractured. He never regained consciousness. The funeral will be conducted from the Baptist church by Rev. M. A. Ayers, the pastor.

The other most seriously injured one of the victims, was Harold Long, daughter of this place. He is in the Rutherford hospital suffering with a broken shoulder.

YOUNG ABBEVILLE WOMAN KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Anderson, June 26.—Returning to her home from the fields, where she and her husband had been working, Mrs. Eugene Phillips, about 25 years of age, of Abbeville county, residing some two miles below the town of Honeta Park, was struck by lightning and almost instantly killed Monday afternoon shortly before 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Phillips' hair was said to have been considerably burned and her face and other portions of the body were also severely burned. Her clothing was torn into pieces and one of her shoes was torn from her foot.

It is singular that in one of her hands Mrs. Phillips carried an egg which she had supposedly found in the field, and this was not broken, but found clenched in her hand. Mrs. Phillips was said to have carried a steel box on her shoulder and it was believed that this instrument attracted the lightning, the full force of which, it is believed, struck the woman.

Some years ago a brother-in-law of Mrs. Phillips lost two of his small children in a similar manner to that in which Mrs. Phillips died.

Supreme Court to Decide.

Winnsboro, June 28.—Yesterday a test case was brought in the supreme court in Columbus as to whether an alleged inconsistency occurred in the wording of the Fairfield county bond issue for $500,000 for permanent good roads. How the supreme court will construe the law is a matter of great interest to the people of Fairfield, where in the November election last fall, the vote for the bond issue was six to one against it. If the supreme court decides against the county the building of the roads will have to be postponed until after the legislature meets in January.

A small tract of land near Evansville, Indiana, lying north of the Ohio River, belongs to Kentucky. As a result of a change in the course of the Ohio River the boundary marker between Indiana and Kentucky is on the north side.

DRIVES A CAR AT HIGH SPEED

At Night in Sleep—He Hardly Knew How to Drive—Engine "Died."

(Greenville News).

Can a person get up in his sleep, go to a garage, get an automobile out that he has hardly learned to drive, and race eight miles down a road, "wide open," and never run in a ditch?

If that question has been puzzling anybody it has been answered. The stunt was pulled last Tuesday night by George Puckett, 14-year-old son of W. L. Puckett, night watchman in the Woodside building. George's father told the story to a News reporter last night at the Woodside. The tale ran something like this:

The Puckett home is situated some three miles from the city, just off the Easley road. George has been known several times to get up in his sleep and walk about the house, always waking members of the family, who get him back to bed. Tuesday about midnight he awoke and went straight to the garage on his own, without dressing walked out of the house. When awakened younger George was "afraid of the dark" and even now he does not like to go about after night, but he fell asleep straight to the garage on this night, however, and one of the small children heard him start the engine of a well-known make of automobile.

The little one called an elder brother, but before he could get up the house George was gone, disappearing. George had just learned to drive the car. He did not take the regular driveway to the road, but went through the woods, along an old wagon road, hardly wide enough to get through. He did not seem to mind the narrow road, however, as he opened the accelerator. He drove with much like at a full speed. He fast disappeared towards the Saluda dam.

CLIMATES WILL FILL WOODS WITH THEIR SHELLS

These Insects are Due to Make their Appearance in Georgia any day now, according to the state agriculturists.

The states in which they will be heard and seen this year are: Georgia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia, as well as some eastern states, the distribution of the cicadas being decidedly local.

They will emerge from their 17-year hibernation, winter and summer, and will fill the woods with their thrill notes. The females are dumb.

The cicadas, as they are scientifically known, produce the prolonged shrill notes, which may by courtesy, be called music, by vibrating membranes of special organs on the under side of the abdomen.

Damage to mature trees, if asserted, but may seriously injure young trees or nursery stock. No injury is practically against them in large numbers over large areas, but orchards and shrubs may be partly protected, say Georgia or order them by means of dusting with pyrethrum powder when the insects have just emerged from the shells in which they emerge from the ground, or spray them with kerosene emulsion—about the same time.

Just what how much damage may be feared for vegetation and crops by means of the cicadas, visitation, agriculturists here do not know. The pest, it is stated, seem to be more plentiful in appearance than insects of millions of dollars less numerous of recent years than formerly, due to change of forest conditions probably.

The most disastrous locust year known in the United States, it was stated here today, was in 1874, when enormous swarms invaded the settled portions of Mississippi valley, covering Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, Wyoming, Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, New Mexico and Texas.

The loss in this region was estimated at $50,000,000 in the actual destruction of crops. Other sections have been ravaged in other years by these insects, millions of dollars damage has been done to the crops, but no disaster as severe as that of 1874 has been recorded.

YOUR TIME AND MONEY

In a very little book, Arnold Bennett, the novelist, points out what money spent can be replaced, but time spent is gone forever.

Mr. Bennett is telling you a little too liberal in his ideas about money spending. He, of course, being highly enough can get more money easily enough. Most of us can't.

Money, once we have got it, should be spent wisely and carefully. The time you have spent, as all, and without money we can never have independence. Thrift in money matters is highly important. But thrift in time is still more important. An hour wasted is an hour lost.

Decide as early in life as you can just how much time you can afford to waste, and never waste another hour beyond that limit.

Do not count time spent in play or in recreation or in a few weeks of absolute idleness as waste.

Rest is necessary, and play is the best form of rest. A little idleness is necessary when the machine gets run down.

But let not an hour be altogether wasted. The time you have spent from the house to the office or shop, can be spent in reading the news, or in profitable conversation with a friend, or in a little more information or ideas.

The time you sit about waiting for meals can be spent with a good book, or in a little more reading.

If you find you cannot go to sleep, immediately on going to bed, keep a book handy and read it till you get sleepy.

Allow a certain part of your leisure hours to be spent with a good book, or in a little more reading.

Put in part of your time remembering books and conversations and things you have seen. That is the best way to keep your memory.

Divide your time systematically. Let it be time you have a certain amount of it, which comprises your whole life.

A waste of time is a waste of part of your life, and nobody can afford that.

At the expense of other nations.

The opening meeting of the Woman's Missionary society was held in St. John's Methodist church, this morning, with a good attendance of delegates representing the entire Upper South Carolina conference. Mrs. A. C. Patterson, president of the St. John's auxiliary, welcomed the delegates. After an interesting session, dinner was served to about 140 delegates. The meetings will continue through tonight and tomorrow. Mrs. Clarence Cress, of Chester, is president of the society. —Rock Hill Record.

DIAMOND DUST

Well, we certainly fooled York Wednesday. The Rose City boys thought they had a snap when they came to Chester but were awakened by the score of 8 to 5.

That Ump Wednesday certainly did burn Chester's pitcher on strikes right over the plate, and the fans did not fail to let it be known that they were not satisfied.

That York Ump had been heard of before he got to Chester. It is thought that York is feeding him too many sweets.

A fan who sits in the grandstand right behind the catcher can tell exactly when a ball comes over the plate. Some of them did that thing Wednesday and knew what they were kicking about when the Ump called strikes balls.

Chester was materially strengthened Wednesday. Duganhart, a new boy, pitched excellent ball and was well supported.

O'Neill, Chester's new short stop was on the sick list Wednesday, nevertheless the new-comer played real baseball and was right there with the goods.

Mackey, another new one for Chester, hit the pill Wednesday for three sacks with runners on.

Ray, for York, is a good one but befuddled to handle the willow to amount to much Wednesday. Must have been an off day.

Two of York's runs were no doubt due to the high wind which caused a fielder to be unable to judge the ball.

The Rock Hill Herald says Lowdermilk, Chester's manager, runs in from account to advise his twirler too much. Says he should give advice prior to the game.

Rock Hill says, "More practice work and twirling strength will give Chester a team to be reckoned with before the season is over, if they don't shoot it to pieces."

Chester was late getting started but maybe we will do the turtle stuff.

New men on the diamond—for Chester Wednesday were Duganhart, O'Neill, Allison and Mackey.

O'Neill, on short stop for Chester, is a go-getter. He made 'em sick yesterday.

To stop a hard ball, fall, hold a man on third, and put a man out in no easy task, but O'Neill did the trick yesterday.

Chester boys played good ball yesterday even if they did lose. A few errors were rather costly.

You can't kick on yesterday's game even if we did lose.

Broomes landed out a nice one but it was too late in the game to do the work.

Yarborough, pitching for Chester, was good yesterday.

Ellis, is said to be York's best pitcher. He is a good one, but Chester managed to hit just the same.

York played jump baseball yesterday. They had to do it to win the game.

Pool, center for York, certainly made a nifty catch in deep center. He really robbed a man of a nice hit.

BRIEFLY TOLD.

One lone doghouse still remains at the watch on the Rhine. This one soldier was left behind to clean up some investigations.

Dr. Eugene Lyman Fisk, diagnostician and author, says "The average person does not stand the chance of living long. The man of woman who weighs twenty or thirty per cent below the average has the best chance for long life. It is safe to say the average individual reaches the ideal built at thirty. If he can keep near that build for the rest of his life, he increases his chances of longevity."

Education will keep Negroes in the southern states and check the movement northward, according to Dr. H. C. Minnich, head of the Ohio State Normal College, Miami University. One-third of the Negro population of Georgia has migrated, according to Dr. Minnich.

Forestry clubs, formed by boys and girls, are becoming popular, according to the United States Forest Service. Beginning with a forestry club, organized last year in Crested Butte, Colorado, the movement has spread to many other localities in that state. The clubs are formed under the direction of local men and women interested in both forestry and agriculture in co-operation with the county agent and the Forest Service.

Sugar is being rationed out in Berlin. No person is permitted to have more than two pounds monthly. Milk and bread also are on Berlin's ration list.

The little town of Dismal, in Armenia, is the proud possessor of the only modern electric lighting plant in the country. This is due to a young Armenian, a resident director of the Near East Relief. He discovered an abandoned water mill perched on the banks of a swiftly running stream. He repaired the mill and installed a dynamo which generates eighty-five horse power. Now the orphanage, the hospital and nearly every house in the village is lighted with electricity, to the astonishment of the natives, many of whom had never seen an electric light before.

A replica of an old-time Hudson Bay fur, such as was the nucleus of the western posts of the great company, and which still exist in the Far North, will be erected at the Calgary Exhibition, June 19 to 24, as a part of the Stampede feature. Special arrangements will be made to provide a commodious camping ground for the old-timers who will attend with the old-fashioned chuck wagons and cowboy equipment.

The Mennonite farmers who migrated from the Canadian provinces to Mexico now want to return to Canada. The 5,000 families brought vast tracts of Mexican land, generally paying one-third in cash. In one region where they purchased 60,000 acres, only an inch and a half of rain has fallen since March 1922. In attempting to irrigate the land, workers got down 212 feet through solid rock and had not struck water. However, they still have $2,400,000 on deposit in El Paso, Texas, and they are waiting to go back to Canada to begin again where they left off they will be satisfied.

At midnight, in Dawson City, Yukon Territory, as the celebration of Empire Day was at its height, tidings were brought to the dance halls and gambling places of the discovery of a silver ledge at Happy Creek, forty miles south of Yukon. Immediately the rush began and soon the waterways leading to Happy Creek were filled with rowboats, canoes and launches carrying eager prospectors.

The Red Cross organization is forty years old. Since 1863 the society has been first in offering medical aid, food, shelter and money to victims of the world's calamities. Since 1919, the average yearly cost of disaster relief has been approximately $14,500,000. Since 1881, the American Red Cross has extended relief in 372 disasters, including cyclones, floods, plagues, and earthquakes, eruptions, fires, earthquakes, mine disasters and epidemics.

Many Europeans and some Chinese have taken advantage of a clause in the Immigration Restriction Act, which provides that any person who has resided for a year in Mexico, Canada, Newfoundland, Cuba or Central or South America, can enter the United States without reference to numerical quotas. Within the last nine months, 40,000 "Mexicans" and 62,000 "Canadians" have crossed the border into the United States.

Brazil has produced a new textile fiber known as fibrosa. This fiber has been known to grow in certain localities of Brazil for years but no commercial use was made until recently. The fiber itself possesses considerable strength and is of the quality. It takes up sizing materials and finishing chemicals easily and dyes well.

Green Olives

Here's a little house recipe that may be prepared in a few minutes. It's novel and tasty. The family will enjoy it, and so will the rest of the world. It's one of those "surprise" appetizers that label your dinner as unique and charming.

Put large green olives and fill with the pulp of hard-boiled eggs mixed with a paste with a little butter. Lay an olive on a strip of bacon, spread with mustard and a thin pinch of mustard, roll up, fasten with toothpick and broil just long enough to crisp the bacon. Serve on toast fingers.

RELIEF FOR THE NEAR EAST.

On Tuesday afternoon at the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church, that organization decided to take the initiative in collecting clothing for the Armenians and other peoples of the Near East.

No greater humanitarian plea has ever reached America than the need of these people, and especially the call of Armenia appeal to every Christian and to every American. America honors the Pilgrim and the Huguenot who, to secure freedom to worship God, crossed unknown seas and faced all independent, feeling that a people though numerically weak, had a right to justice; and yet, this same America is in danger of forgetting that a sturdy little nation whose people have for hundreds of years preserved their nationality and religion under the avarice of trials and persecutions is looking to her to save the pitifully small remnant of her people.

Armenia, the oldest national Christian church in the world, which certainly gives her a claim on all Christians, and during the late war the joint Allies unqualifiedly furnishing many valiant soldiers who often rendered invaluable service, and this should strengthen her claim that no American citizen fail to respond to her call.

The Republic of Armenia was recognized by the United States in 1920, and unable to defend itself against its fortunes, she looks to America as her one possible source of help. All the Allies of Europe were crushed with burdensome war debts, and suffering and hoped that America's humanitarianism would cause her to intervene to save Armenia. President Wilson was anxious to establish a mandate for Armenia until she could re-establish a stable government, but Congress felt that too many international complications might result from such action, and decided to enter upon such service. Sympathizing, however, with the sufferings of these people, Congress organized the "Near East Relief." Its sole purpose is to relieve this distress.

Wonderful work has already been done in bettering the conditions resulting from war and cruelty. Hospitals, orphanages and rescue homes have been established, and thousands who could not be accommodated in the institutions are being fed at the soup kitchens. Not less than 1,000,000 are alive today who would have died had not been for the "Near East Relief." But relief is not content if these nations and especially Armenia is to be saved. The Committee needs clothes and money if they are to save lives in the Near East.

Now EVERY FAMILY IN CHESTER has some garments that it can pass on. Every thing except evening dresses, silk stockings, French heated slippers and very thin cotton material is solicited. The whole program of the Near East Relief is constructive, and these thousands upon thousands in the orphanages etc., are being educated and taught trades. In addition to being taught to spin and weave, the students find work in the shoe shop, carpenter shop, blacksmith shop and tin shop. Of course, at this season when winter will be upon them when these supplies reach them the great cry is, for clothes that will keep them warm.

These garments are to be shipped to the Near East Relief Warehouse in Columbia and Mr. Mims, State Chairman, this year, recommends shipping them in good strong bags of any description, as that is so much more economical of space, and certainly is easier for any local one strong clean bag to aid the committee in packing.

HOUSEKEEPERS, hunt out those articles no longer needed, or what you can do without, your pieces of cloth that you have decided you do not need; MERCHANTS, what a store, out-of-style dresses, coats or shoes, or that faded and soiled stock that you can not dispose of? Many a soul will rejoice to get what you should rejoice to get rid of.

Tuesday's paper will tell you the exact days on which these articles will be collected. Have them ready, and in the meantime any individuals with an able and willing to use their years in collecting articles, and any organization, such as the Boy Scouts, that will aid in such collection can serve nobly if it will notify Mrs. R. A. Oliphant that she can depend on their help. Mrs. Oliphant is Chairman of the committee for collecting these articles and will appreciate offers of help. Contributed.

Pains Were Terrible

Read how Mrs. Albert (name changed) of P. D. Me., Hinton, Ill., got rid of her pains.

My pains were so bad that I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach. . . . I was actually weeping. My husband was worried. . . . One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and decided to get some Cardui for me to try.

CHECK FOR FIVE HUNDRED PRESENTED TO EVANGELIST

Abbeville, S. C., June 25.—The last meeting of the 39th Jones' series was held at the tabernacle last night and the evangelist preached his farewell sermon to a large crowd. The meeting at Abbeville has been a success and many have expressed a revival or quickening of religious faith. A purse of $500 was presented to Bob Jones at the service last night, which he accepted with thanks.

Killed by Lightning

Winnabow, June 26.—John Fraser, negro tenant living on the place of T. K. Elliott on the outskirts of town, was struck and instantly killed by lightning during an electrical storm here late yesterday afternoon. Fraser had taken refuge from the storm in one of the outhouses on the place, and thinking that the storm was over, went to the door, which he opened, the bolt entering and striking him dead. Medical aid was summoned but life was extinct before the doctor reached him.
